There Railroad are pushing forward that work with a gree-deal of spirit. Fifty-eight miles have been com-plesed, and the contractors are making rapid progress. Som Home to the extreme terminus of the road, Cape fincent, is ninety-six miles, running through a thickly settled country, which is quite productive, and embracing a population of some 120,000. From Rome to Pierrepont, the present terminus, is lifty-three miles. The road runs twenty-six and a half miles through Oneida county, twerty-two through the eastern part of Oswego, and about five or six into Jefferson county. The continuation will carry it about forty-three miles, and will form a connecting line between the great commercial emporium of this State and the dominions of the Queen, thus bringing the 700,000 inhabitants of Canada West, through the medium of Kingston into most degirable business. and social connection with the States. The original hopes of the projectors of the road are fully sustained by the great success of the small portion already opened. The intention of the directors is, that at or about the time of the completion of the road to Watertown, which will be near the end of August, the further portion to Cape Vincent shall also be finished. For the promotion of this result, the iron for that end, amounting to about 3.000 tons, will be delivered at Quebec, Chaumont Bay-and Sackett's Harbor. About 750 tons have already been handed at the latter port.
